The paintings are all done in oils on a deep canvas, and are supplied framed in a dark brown 'tray' frame .

UK Delivery and packing will be included in your quote.

A deposit of 25% is required before painting commences.

The balance will be due in three further payments, with the final payment due on or before delivery.

Details: Ideally, depending on your geographical location, I would love to pay you a visit to discuss the details and composition of your painting, and to photograph your selected books myself (I do enjoy meeting my clients and talking about their books!). Otherwise, you will need to provide photographs of the spines of your chosen books, preferably together on a shelf (to ensure correct size correlation in the painting), and arranged as you would like them to be painted. Alternatively I can build a composition from suggested titles or themes.

Please note: There is currently a turn-around time of 9-12 months for commissions
